

DRISCOLL | BABCOCK

THE HUFFINGTON POST

Hot Off the Easel: November, 2015 Edition

John Seed

Hot Off the Easel is a monthly blog feature designed to showcase a cross-section of vital and varied contemporary paintings. - John Seed

Margaret Bowland, Tangled up in Blue, 2015, Oil on linen, 70 x 98 inches

"The painting is about innocence and love; the man on the right is the boy's father, and he has taken on the burden or entanglement with this world in order that his son can grow up innocent, escaping as long as he can what is to come." - Margaret Bowland

Tangled Up in Blue will be included in the exhibition Margaret Bowland: Power at Driscoll Babcock Galleries, October 29 - December 12, 2015.